

Handout 2.2: Strengths Inventory and Notice Cards

Name: _____ Date: _____ Table: _____

Directions: Today you find out what you do well, from two sources: you, and the three people at your table. Part 1 is your own inventory. Part 2 is what other people noticed. Be honest in both. “Not yet” is not an insult; it is a to-do list.

The three words

Word	What it means	Example
Trait	How you usually are	quiet, outgoing, patient, stubborn
Strength	Something you do well	calms down a crying kid, fixes bikes, remembers everyone's birthday
Interest	Something you want to do more of	drawing, basketball, cooking, taking things apart

A trait can turn into a strength. “Patient” is a trait. “Sits with my little cousin until she gets the math” is a strength.

Word bank in other languages

English	Turkish	Portuguese	Spanish
trait	kişilik özelliği	traço (característica)	rasgo
strength	güçlü yön	ponto forte	fortaleza (punto fuerte)
interest	ilgi alanı	interesse	interés
career	kariyer (meslek)	carreira	carrera (profesión)
evidence	kanıt	evidência (prova)	evidencia (prueba)

Part 1: My strengths inventory

For each strength, check one box. Then go back and star your top three.

Thinking

Strength	Yes, often	Sometimes	Not yet
I figure out how things work
I remember details other people forget

I learn new things fast
I solve problems without being told how
I can focus on one thing for a long time
I check my work and catch my own mistakes

Doing

Strength	Yes, often	Sometimes	Not yet
I build or fix things with my hands
I am good at a sport or a physical skill
I keep my things organized
I can cook or bake something without help
I make things: art, music, videos, crafts
I follow directions exactly when it counts

People

Strength	Yes, often	Sometimes	Not yet
I make people laugh
I listen without interrupting
I include people who are left out
I can explain something so another person gets it

I stay calm when other people panic
I can get a group to agree and get moving

Character

Strength	Yes, often	Sometimes	Not yet
I tell the truth even when it costs me
I keep going when something is hard
I do what I said I would do
I try the scary thing
I wait my turn and do not rush people
I finish what I start

My top three, with evidence

Evidence is a time it happened, not a feeling. “I fixed the chain on my brother’s bike without a video” is evidence. “I am good at fixing things” is not.

My strength	Evidence: one time it happened

Part 2: What other people noticed

You will get three notice cards from the people at your table. Read them. Then answer.

The card that surprised me most said I am good at:

Was this strength already in my top three? Circle: Yes / No

If no, do I agree with them? Circle: Yes / No / Not sure. One sentence why:

Exit line

A strength I put in my top three: _____

A strength someone else saw in me: _____

Are they the same? Circle: Yes / No

Grade 8 stretch: write a fourth notice card for someone at another table you have worked with in a lab, and deliver it.

Keep this sheet and your three notice cards in your FACS folder. You need them on day 39 for the All About Me one-pager.

The rule: a notice card names something the person did, not something they are. “You are nice” does not count. “I noticed you are good at explaining because you re-explained the recipe to me on lab day” counts. Sign your name so the person can ask you about it.
